

LA PLAZA

Latino Leadership Development Program

This is a partnership between La Plaza Delaware and HACE, the Hispanic Alliance for Career Enhancement.

The Emerging Latino Leadership Program (ELLP), formerly known as Leadership Academy, is geared towards high potential, high performing new managers and business owners for both Latinos and Latinas. The cohort-based program enables them to lead their teams and organizations more effectively. The curriculum assists in mastering the multiple roles and unique challenges that Latino professionals face through self-reflection and coaching, peer mentoring and culturally relevant content and conversations.

Program Sessions

- Leading through your values and culture
- Leadership effectiveness
- Power up your communication
- Building trust and managing change
- Managers vs. leaders
- Conflict management
- Strategic planning
- Team project presentation

Program Benefits

- Insights discovery leadership assessment
- 1 hr one-on-one executive coaching
- Mentorships by powerful hispanic executives
- Alumnae network of 400+ latinx leaders

Target Participant

- Managers & newly promoted directors
- Professionals with 3+ years experience
- Bachelor's degree or 3 years+ business ownership
- High potential leaders/ ERG leaders

Tuition:

Nationally participants pay $3,750 amount in tuition with HACE.

Delaware participants joining through La Plaza will receive a full scholarship, thanks to our funders:

